A vacancy created by the removal of a director may be filled at the meeting of the shareholders at which the director is removed.

Meetings of the directors may be held at any time without notice if all the directors have waived or are deemed to have waived notice.

3.13 First Meeting of New Board. No notice shall be necessary for the first meeting of newly-elected directors held immediately following their election at a meeting of shareholders.

A person named in the said list is entitled to vote the shares shown opposite his name at the meeting to which the list relates, except to the extent that the person has transferred any of his shares and the transferee of those shares produces properly endorsed share certificates, or otherwise establishes that he owns the shares, and demands, not later than ten days before the meeting that his name be included in the list before the meeting, in which case the transferee is entitled to vote his shares at the meeting.

7.11 Joint Shareholders. A proxyholder or an alternate proxyholder has the same rights as the shareholder who appointed him to speak at a meeting of shareholders in respect of any matter, to vote by way of ballot at the meeting and, except where a proxyholder or an alternate proxyholder has conflicting instructions from more than one shareholder, to vote at such meeting in respect of any matter by way of any show of hands. A proxy shall be executed by the shareholder or his attorney authorized in writing or, if the shareholder is a body corporate, by an officer or attorney thereof duly authorized and ceases to be valid one year from its date. Whenever a vote by show of hands shall have been taken upon a question, unless a ballot thereon be required or demanded, an entry in the minutes of a meeting of shareholders to the effect that the chairman declared a motion to be carried is admissible in evidence as prima facie proof of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the motion. A demand for a ballot may be withdrawn at any time prior to taking of a poll on the ballot.

7.18 Ballots. If a ballot is demanded or required, the vote upon the question shall be taken in such manner as the chairman of the meeting shall direct and each person present and entitled to vote at the meeting shall, unless the articles of the Corporation otherwise provide, be entitled to one vote for each share in respect of which he is entitled to vote at the meeting.

A resolution in writing signed by all the shareholders entitled to vote on that resolution at a meeting of shareholders is as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting of shareholders except where a written statement in respect thereof has been submitted by a director or where representations in writing are submitted by the auditor of the Corporation, in either case, in accordance with the Act.

Written acknowledgements shall be in such form or forms as the directors shall from time to time by resolution determine. The Corporation may charge a fee in accordance with the Act for a share certificate issued in respect of a transfer. Subject to the provisions of the Act and to the requirements of any stock exchange on which shares of the Corporation may be listed, share certificates shall be in such form or forms as the directors shall from time to time approve. Unless otherwise determined by the directors, share certificates shall be signed by the Chairman of the Board, the President, or a Vice-President or a director and by the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary and need not be under the corporate seal. Share certificates shall be signed manually by at least one director or officer of the Corporation and any additional signatures required on share certificates may be printed or otherwise mechanically reproduced thereon. A manual signature is not required on a share certificate representing a fractional share. If a share certificate contains a printed or mechanically reproduced signature of a person, the Corporation may issue the share certificate, notwithstanding that the person has ceased to be a director or an officer of the Corporation, and the share certificate is as valid as if he were a director or an officer at the date of its issue.

8.4 Transfer Agents and Registrars. For each class of shares issued by it, the Corporation may appoint one or more agents to keep the securities register and the register of transfers and one or more branch registers. Such an agent may be designated as a transfer agent or registrar according to functions and one agent may be designated both transfer agent and registrar. The securities register and the register of transfers shall be kept at the registered office of the Corporation or at such other places in Ontario as are designated by the directors, and the branch register or registers of transfers may be kept at such offices of the Corporation or other places, either within or outside Ontario, as are designated by the directors.

8 . 5 Transfer of Shares. Subject to the Act, no transfer of a share shall be registered except upon presentation of the certificate representing such share with an endorsement which complies with the Act, together with such reasonable assurance that the endorsement is genuine and effective as the directors may prescribe, upon payment of all applicable taxes and fees and upon compliance with the articles of the Corporation.

8 . 6 Non-Recognition of Trust. Subject to the Act, the Corporation may treat the registered holder of any share as the person exclusively entitled to vote, to receive notices, to receive any dividend or other payment in respect of the share, and to exercise all the rights and powers of an owner of the share.

8 . 7 Replacement of Share Certificates. Where the owner of a share certificate claims that the share certificate has been lost, apparently destroyed or wrongfully taken, the Corporation shall issue or cause to be issued a new certificate in place of the original certificate if the owner (i) so requests before the Corporation has notice that the share certificate has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser; (ii) files with the Corporation an indemnity bond sufficient in the Corporation's opinion to protect the Corporation and any transfer agent, registrar or other agent of the Corporation from any loss that it or any of them may suffer by complying with the request to issue a new share certificate; and (iii) satisfies any other reasonable requirements imposed from time to time by the Corporation.

9. DIVIDENDS AND RIGHTS

9.1 Declaration of Dividends. Subject to the Act the directors may from time to time declare dividends payable to the shareholders according to their respective rights and interest in the Corporation.

9.2 Cheques. A dividend payable in money shall be paid by cheque to the order of each registered holder of shares of the class or series in respect of which it has been declared and mailed by prepaid ordinary mail to such registered holder at the address of such holder in the Corporation's securities register, unless such holder otherwise directs. In the case of joint holders the cheque shall, unless such joint holders otherwise direct, be made payable to the order of all such joint holders and mailed to them at their address in the Corporation's securities register. The mailing of such cheque as aforesaid, unless the same is not paid on due presentation, shall satisfy and discharge the liability for the dividend to the extent of the sum represented thereby plus the amount of any tax which the Corporation is required to and does withhold.

9.3 Non-Receipt of Cheques. In the event of non-receipt of any dividend cheque by the person to whom it is sent as aforesaid, the Corporation shall issue to such person a replacement cheque for a like amount on such terms as to indemnity, reimbursement of expenses and evidence of non-receipt and of title as the directors may from time to time prescribe, whether generally or in any particular case.

9.4 Record Date for Dividends and Rights. The directors may fix in advance a date, preceding by not more than fifty days the date for payment of any dividend or the date for the issue of any warrant or other evidence of the right to subscribe for securities of the Corporation, as a record date for the determination of the persons entitled to receive payment of such dividend or to exercise the rights to subscribe for such securities, and notice of any such record date shall be given not less than seven days before such record date in the manner provided by the Act. If no record date is so fixed, the record date for the determination of the persons entitled to receive payment of any dividend or to exercise the right to subscribe for securities of the Corporation shall be at the close of business on the day on which the resolution relating to such dividend or right to subscribe is passed by the directors.

9.5 Unclaimed Dividends. Any dividend unclaimed after a period of six years from the date on which the same has been declared to be payable shall be forfeited and shall revert to the Corporation.

10. NOTICES

10.4 Notice to Joint Shareholders. All notices or documents with respect to any shares registered in more than one name may, if more than one address appears on the securities register of the Corporation in respect of such joint holding, be given to such joint shareholders at the first address so appearing, and all notices so given or documents so sent shall be sufficient notice to all the holders of such shares.

10.6 Signature on Notice. The signature on any notice or document given by the Corporation may be printed or otherwise mechanically reproduced thereon or partly printed or otherwise mechanically reproduced thereon.

10.7 Waiver of Notice. Notice may be waived or the time for the sending of a notice or document may be waived or abridged at any time with the consent in writing of the person entitled thereto. Attendance of any director at a meeting of the directors or of any shareholder at a meeting of shareholders is a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where he attends for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business on the grounds that the meeting is not lawfully called.
